

Topic: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review Deliveries affected by SUD; document successes and barriers in this tool. Instructions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete this tool on the maternal infant dyad within 24 hours of discharge of the infant Debrief cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Include primary RN and primary MD (Use Boxes below) 	Goal: By December 2023, our aim is to increase identification and treatment of SUDs for birthing people and their infants exposed to substances in perinatal period by 50%. We intend to increase the use of non-pharma approaches for infants exposed to opioids and reduce the infant ALOS.
--	--

Review Date: _____

Delivery Admission Date/Time:

Ethnicity: Non-Hispanic Hispanic

Pt Identifies as: White Black Asian
 American Indian/Alaskan Native
 Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander
 Other/Multiple

Language: English Non-English

Gestational Age at delivery

Inpatient Management:

Was the birthing person screened for SUD during pregnancy using a verbal screening tool? Yes No

What tool was used? _____

Did the infant room in? Yes No

Was a drug screen done on infant? Yes No

Results: _____

Was a urine drug screen done on the birthing person Yes No

Results: _____

Did infant receive Opioids PRN, Scheduled or None

Type: _____

Did infant receive Clonidine? Yes No

What assessment tool was used on infant?

Discharge Management: (May leave blank)

Was the newborn discharged to either birth parent? Yes No

Was the pregnant/postpartum person already enrolled in a recovery treatment services? Yes No

Was the pregnant/postpartum person referred to recovery treatment services? Yes No

Length of stay for the opioid exposed newborn?

Opportunities for Improvement:

Team Issues	Needs Improvement (Blank=goals met)	Notes-Could bias have influenced outcome?	System Issues	Needs Improvement (Blank=goals met)	Notes-Could bias have influenced outcome?
Communication			Transportation (intra-inter hospital transport)
Assessing Situation			Support (in-unit, other areas)
Decision Making			Med Availability
Teamwork			Other Issues
Leadership

Questions or comments? Contact: info@minnesotaperinatal.org

Note: Confidential document protected under Peer Review Statute # 145.61. Revision date: December 2022